DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-9 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 5-9 provides for the use of a network management, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claims 5-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

4. Claims 5-9 are rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

The claim(s) are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure which goes to make up the device must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 1, 5-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by FOCSANEANU et al (US 5,991,292).

Claims 1, 5-9, FOCSANEANU et al discloses in a wireless transmission apparatus for constructing a wireless network by using a plurality of transmission apparatus to transmit information among it and a plurality of other communication stations, said wireless transmission apparatus being characterized by (see figure 2 and 8): interface means for detecting connection bus information of a bus connected to a certain wireless transmission apparatus;

Wireless information transmitting means (inherently included in elements 52 and 42 of figure 2, see also element 238 of figure 8) for transmitting corresponding connection bus information to said wireless network;

Wireless information receiving means (inherently include in elements 42 and 52 of figure 2, see also element 238 of figure 8) for receiving connection bus information transmitted from other wireless transmission apparatus located within said wireless network; and Internal storage means for storing therein these connection bus information (table 248).

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claim 2 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. Claims 3-4 allowed.

9. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art made of record fails to teach in combination in judging means for judging based on connection bus information of said wireless network whether or not information should be transmitted by radio when it receives wireless transmission information from a connection bus connected to corresponding wireless transmission apparatus.

The prior art further fails to teach in combination recognizing means for recognizing a wireless transmission apparatus to which information is transmitted by radio based on connection bus information in each of said other communication stations when it receives wireless transmission information from a connection bus connected to a corresponding wireless transmission apparatus.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Cioli et al (US 6,510,151) discloses a method and apparatus provided for using shared-media networks in a connection-based networking scheme.
